18) According to the entries in the Civil List, Sri B. S. Hanuman was first appointed to the charge of Dt. Try. Mandya in Novr. 1948. He held this charge till January 1950 when he was specially posted as district dev. officer. (The relevant Cttn. is not readily available) He has barely held this charge for two months. The proposal now is to re-post him as D.T.O. Mandya. While the D. C.'s reasons for re-posting Sri B.S. Hanuman are given in his letter Dy 24.3.50 — and it may be respectfully submitted that there is nothing special about these reasons and any officer posted to serve as P. A. is expected to discharge his duties in the manner Sri Hanuman is stated to do — nothing is said about the

22) The D.C.'s letter (P.U.D.) is placed below. I have discussed the matter with him when he was here a few days ago. He considers it would be more desirable to have Sri. B.S. Hanumanna as the P.A., as the P.A will have to deal with the public in the D.C.'s absence, and it is better to have a tactful person there for that job.

23) Sri. D. Basavaraj. He was taken out of Table for behaviour for certain reasons, and it was thought better to put him in a quiet place for some time. As D.D.O. he will have more occasions for direct contacts & dealings with the public than as P.A.

Hanuman is retained as the District Treasury Officer as he has acquired experience of this Office work which is of a special nature owing to the questions of Visveswariya Canal, etc. I would suggest that Sri Basavaraj Urs who is learnt to be a good executive Officer may be kindly posted as the District Development - - Officer. I shall be thankful for early orders in the matter.

MANDYA,

Dated .....March. 24,...1950.

D.O.Pc.192/49-50.

Dear Sir,

I am duly in receipt of your D.O.letter No.12546, ~~dxx~~ dated 23rd March, 1950, in regard to the retention of Sri.B.S.Hanuman as District Treasury Officer, Mandya. Sri.B.S.Hanuman has been very useful to me as my Personal Assistant, and if he is continued it will afford material relief to me in regard to several matters of routine. He has also been courteous, strict, and correct in his dealings with the public, for which reason I consider that it is desirable that he should remain as my Personal Assistant. Hence I am of opinion that if possible he may be kindly reposted as District Treasury Officer and Personal Assistant and Sri.Basavaraj Urs posted as District Development Officer, Mandya.

With best regards,

Yours Sincerely,

K P Ramanathaiya
